Quotations should be superscribed "Quotation for the supply of hard fuel and soft fuel" and should be accompanied by a deposit of Rs. 50 which will be retained as security, in case of successful tenderers for the due fulfilment of the contract.

The final acceptance or otherwise of any quotation will rest with the undersigned, who does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any other quotation or assign any reason whatsoever for the rejection of any quotation.

The names of the successful competitors, whose quotations have been accepted, will be put up on the notice board at the Office of the Executive Engineer, Markonahalli Reservoir Division, and no separate intimation will be given to the parties.

The deposit of unsuccessful tenderers will be refunded after the quotations are finally disposed.

The rates accepted will be final and no enhancements will be allowed under whatever circumstances during the currency of the contract.

The supply should be completed by the 15th August 1938, after which, the department will make its own arrangements to get its supply through any agency.

Within one week after the date of notification in the Notice Board, the successful tenderer will execute a Mutchalika binding himself to the terms of the supply which will be prescribed by the undersigned and failure to adhere to the terms of the contract will entail forfeiture of the Security Deposit.

M. NARASIMHAIYA,
Executive Engineer.
